Daily Honest Nutrition

Nutrio is a subscription-based healthy food ordering app designed to simplify disciplined eating.

HEIZEN

What is Nutrio

> “Users can now build healthy routines, subscribe to personalized meals, and automate their nutrition all without daily planning stress.

1 Problem

Maintaining healthy eating requires daily planning, grocery shopping, and cooking. Busy professionals and parents often skip meals or rely on unhealthy alternatives.

2 Solution

Nutrio introduces scheduled meal subscriptions tailored for gym users, families, and lifestyle-focused individuals.
Users can customize, automate, and manage their nutrition in one simple app.

3 Impact

Healthy eating becomes consistent, stress-free, and predictable.
Users save time, reduce decision fatigue, and build sustainable routines.

The Brand Behind the Discipline

Designing a health-first identity

Logo Anatomy

The Nutrio logo is constructed using a precise grid system to ensure consistency, alignment, and scalability across all platforms.

The bold “N” establishes a strong visual anchor, representing structure and discipline the core of Nutrio’s philosophy.
The leaf element, emerging subtly from the wordmark, symbolizes natural nutrition, growth, and freshness, reinforcing the brand’s health-first approach.

The proportions of the wordmark are carefully balanced to maintain readability while preserving a modern and minimal aesthetic.
